

Community Development Officer (Re-advertisement)

Salary: £35,500 - £38,242
Hours: 35 hours per week
Location: Glasgow / Hybrid
Fixed Term Post: Three-year fixed term contract, funded by Glasgow Communities Fund and Rosemount Development Trust.

Rosemount Development Trust is seeking an enthusiastic individual with a broad skill set and experience of delivering community led regeneration.

Working closely with the community of Royston and Partners on the Royston Strategy Group the Trust is seeking to address the challenging problem of vacant and derelict land and buildings in Royston.

The post-holder will develop practical and innovative approaches to bringing different types of problematic sites back into productive use, two of which are already in progress, Provanhill Street and Glenconner Park. Both projects will be an initial priority for any successful candidate to move forward.

As the Community Development Officer, you will have excellent interpersonal skills. You will work collaboratively and innovatively with the local community and businesses, our partners, Glasgow City Council, and external Consultants.

This is a unique post which will require excellent negotiating and communication skills, experience of planning, and development processes, and knowledge of funding/financing local initiatives and regeneration projects.

The post-holder will be based at Rosemount Business Park, 141 Charles Street, G21 2QA.

The closing date for applications is Friday 24th November 2023 at 12.30pm.

To apply for the post please download the information and application form from our website at: <https://www.rosemounttrust.co.uk/>

Rosemount Development Trust is committed to a policy of equality & diversity.

Please note this is a re advertisement and previous applicants should not re-apply.